HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Agatha Christie's birthday was September 15th...she'd be 134 years old if she was still alive today. Known as the queen of crime writing, we've got 20 of her books in our library, including her autobiography.

The 3 stories featured in this book follow friends Theo, Ricky and Angela and focus on unusual goings on at and around their school. From the same author as Noughts and Crosses.

TEACHER CORNER

Why not ask for a book talk? 10 minutes of lesson time or tutor time where I bring these books and others related to our weekly theme to let kids browse.
